- Username: A text input field containing 'In-Studio-Autumn-2026'.
- Password: A text input field containing 'Spark!Colour26'.
- Remember Me: A checked checkbox.
- Log In: A blue button.
- Lost your password?: A link below the password field.
- Go to Syncing Space: A link below the 'Lost your password?' link.
- Language: A dropdown menu set to 'English (UK)' with a 'Change' button next to it.

Two blue arrows with circular numbers point to the form fields:

- Arrow 3 points to the Username field.
- Arrow 4 points to the Log In button.

The screenshot shows the WordPress 'Add Post' form in a web browser. The browser's address bar shows 'syncingspace.org/wp-admin/post-new.php'. The form has a dark header bar with a back arrow and the text 'Back to your studio'. The main form area is titled 'Add Post' and contains three input fields: 'Title' (containing 'Trying out pink'), 'Artist Name' (containing 'Clara Bennett'), and 'Images' (containing the text 'Upload image/s here - click "Add to gallery"'). Below the 'Images' field is a large empty box and a blue button labeled 'Add to gallery'. At the bottom of the form is an 'Audio' section with the text 'Upload an audio file here:' and a button labeled 'Add File'. On the right side of the form is a 'Publish' sidebar with buttons for 'Save Draft', 'Preview', and 'Publish', and status information: 'Status: Draft', 'Visibility: Public', and 'Publish immediately'.
